Hi,

I would like to register my protest against the proposed remedies in the Microsoft case. In particular, I'd like to point to Microsoft's use of proprietary file-formats to counter competition against its suite of MS Office product. At the same time, Microsoft's decision to not support free and open-source OSes means that compatible software is not available to a significant fraction of the consumers. As such, this issue should be taken care of.

Thanks,
